ARMCHAIR BELMORA

The Belmora professional catering chair is both inviting and powerful – with a charisma that shows immediate presence. The gently rounded armrests transition elegantly into the backrest, giving the armchair a calm, high-quality silhouette. The bouclé cover adds a subtle depth to the material appearance through its striking texture and represents a warm, cozy touch. In contrast, the vintage grey faux leather sets a clear, tidy accent. Both upholstery materials impress with professional ease of care, making them a perfect fit for flexible interior design concepts. A special highlight is the noble finish of the powder-coated frame – and that is exactly what makes Belmora visibly exclusive and premium.

- Strong design line: Armrests and backrest appear as if cast from a single mold
- Easy to maintain in everyday use: Both bouclé and faux leather are robust and easy to clean
- Noble frame finish: The powder-coated finish is exclusive and high-quality
- Strong design line: Armrests and backrest look as though they are cast from a single piece
- Easy to care for in everyday life: bouclé and faux leather are both durable and easy to clean
- Elegant frame finish: The powder-coated finish is exclusive and high-quality
