CHAIR IMKE

With its striking channel tufting, the Imke series combines contemporary design with high seating comfort. The ergonomically rounded backrest supports a comfortable seating position, making both the chair and the armchair ideal for use in restaurants and hotels. The sturdy frame made of solid beech wood in a walnut finish underlines the warm, premium character of this model. A particularly dimensionally stable and durable foam ensures long-lasting seating comfort and a pleasantly firm, stable sitting experience – also ideal for daily, intensive use. A selection of easy-care upholstery fabrics and faux leathers are available for the cushioning. Upon request, Imke is also available with other covers.

- High seating comfort: Ergonomically rounded backrest and pleasantly firm upholstery
- Durable & dimensionally stable: High-quality foam for long-lasting, reliable seating comfort
- Solid beech wood: Sturdy frame made of solid beech wood in a walnut finish
