ARMCHAIR ALEXIS

Robust and comfortable: the Alexis Armchair. With its high level of seating comfort, it is ideal for the outdoor area of hospitality venues. Its curved shape and soft edges also make it suitable for use in Health & Care as well as wellness areas. The sturdy frame is made of powder-coated aluminium. The seat and backrest are made of breathable, quick-drying mesh fabric. Lightweight and particularly space-saving as a stackable armchair (up to 6).
