ARMCHAIR MAVENO

The Maveno frame made of powder-coated aluminum in a matte, warm wood look is stable yet lightweight and allows for easy handling in everyday use. The seat and back are made of easy-care plastic wicker in a rattan look, which is hand-woven and gives the chair a high-quality appearance. All materials are weather-resistant and UV-resistant, making them ideal for permanent outdoor use. The ergonomically shaped back ensures a high level of seating comfort – even when sitting for longer periods. A matching seat cushion is already included, and the chair is stackable, making it ideal for flexible seating arrangements in outdoor areas.
